This Coaching Institute is designed especially for building and central office leaders; educators who are not coaches but who would benefit from:

Knowing what good coaching looks like;
Incorporating coaching into their supervision, even as evaluators rather than coaches;
Optimizing coaching to support their strategy for improvement;
Knowing how to support coaches.

Participants will learn about and practice the following:
Coaching to support equity, high quality instruction, and school and district improvement;
Providing feedback in a research-based and supportive manner;
Using coaching to support continuous improvement;
Supporting strategic thinking, problem solving, and self-regulation.

Participants will be asked to record their coaching, so please come prepared with a voice recorder or smartphone with voice recording app and ear-buds.
